

Kevin Regan (B.A. Hons.)

Kevin Regan was recruited from a Civil Service Benefit Fraud Team into a firm of Private Detectives and became operational in Manchester and London in the late 1980's.

He has remained a Full Time, Front Line, Professional Private Investigator, ever since and will soon celebrate 29 years in business. Kevin is currently the MD of Burton Regan Limited, Leeds.

Burton Regan has spearheaded field-visiting teams for international organisations, their debtor and people trace teams have won prestigious industry awards. Burton Regan surveillance teams and process servers are instructed by Local Authorities and National Corporations.

Kevin has been a trainer since 2009 - his skills sets and knowledge base led to his appointment, in October 2013, as the Lead Examiner for the Professional Investigator Sector with Pearson Plc (The world's largest education company).

Kevin is the Secretary and a founder member of the Association of British Investigators Academy. Kevin is active at Branch Level with the Association of British Investigators.