

MEMBERSHIP CRITERIA - FULL AND PROVISIONAL

V14 2025-03

FULL MEMBERSHIP CRITERIA

1. Applicants must be resident in the United Kingdom and have been engaged as fulltime investigators in the UK for a minimum of two years, either as principal or employee of a reputable investigation agency.
2. They must be 21 years or over.
3. All Full members will be required to hold Professional Indemnity Insurance at the minimum level of cover of £500,000. The Association has a members' only arrangement with a preferred broker PolicyBee, which provides comprehensive cover at discounted premiums. Click HERE for details.
4. A Criminal Conviction Certificate (Basic Disclosure or above and meets the ABI Policy Statement, click HERE), which is less than 12 months old will be inspected. Please see Notice & Consent, click HERE, in particular references to the processing of criminal offence data. Disclosure can be applied for on-line, click HERE (DBS) or HERE (Disclosure Scotland for all UK).
5. All UK members are required to be registered with the Information Commissioner's Office, click HERE.
6. The application process culminates with an informal video call with the selection panel that will review the application:
 - a. Whilst the review is not a test, it is an assessment as to suitability and part of the ABI's quality control. No specific preparation is necessary.
 - b. Ahead of the review the applicant for Full membership will be requested to provide a couple of reports (redacted) as samples of the applicant's recent work. Whilst nothing spectacular is required, the sample reports will be expected to be presented in a professional format.
 - c. The ABI values its reputation and applicants are required to be frank on the information provided and disclose any areas that may be deemed controversial.
7. The applicant will be notified formally in writing by the Secretariat as to the outcome of the application.
8. In the event membership is not granted or is deferred, the panel is not obliged to give a reason but may offer suggestions on the way forward, if appropriate.
9. Unsuccessful applicants may re-apply for membership after one year has elapsed.
10. Every applicant for Full Membership, unless exempt, will be required to have attended the ABI's one-day training workshop on UK GDPR; click HERE for available workshop dates. Applicants for membership will not be required to pay the fee to attend the workshop.
