

Richard Jacques - Turner Award for Excellence

“A full or Overseas member of The Association, I-K-D member, or W.A.D member that has achieved a notable accolade within the investigation sector”

1. Nominations

- Any WAD, ABI Overseas or member of any I-K-D constituent association may be nominated.
- The nominee must declare they are free of any pending proceedings or ongoing complaints.
- Where a nominee is subject to any such proceedings or ongoing complaint then the case will not progress.

2. Verification

- A panel will carry out the verification role by seeking testimonials, press reports, public records etc.

3. Quality Control

- The award is very fluid and not confined to investigation cases. The accolade is not defined beyond ‘notable’ and this may extend to service in the sector, developing educational projects, public representation, lobbying, public recognition, international collaboration, innovation, publishing etc.
- The objective is for the worldwide industry to applaud the actions of a commendable individual.

4. Panel

- The panel will consist of three full ABI members of repute that each have experience of international associations and good knowledge of the ABI overseas membership.

5. Voting

- The award will be made by the panel
- The panel’s decision will remain secret until the AGM.
- With the exception of the award winner, all nominees will receive the President’s RJT Commendation Certificate.

RICHARD JACQUES TURNER AWARD
NOMINATION FORM

1. Person Nominated

2. Member of the following professional association(s).

3. Address and Contact Details

Address

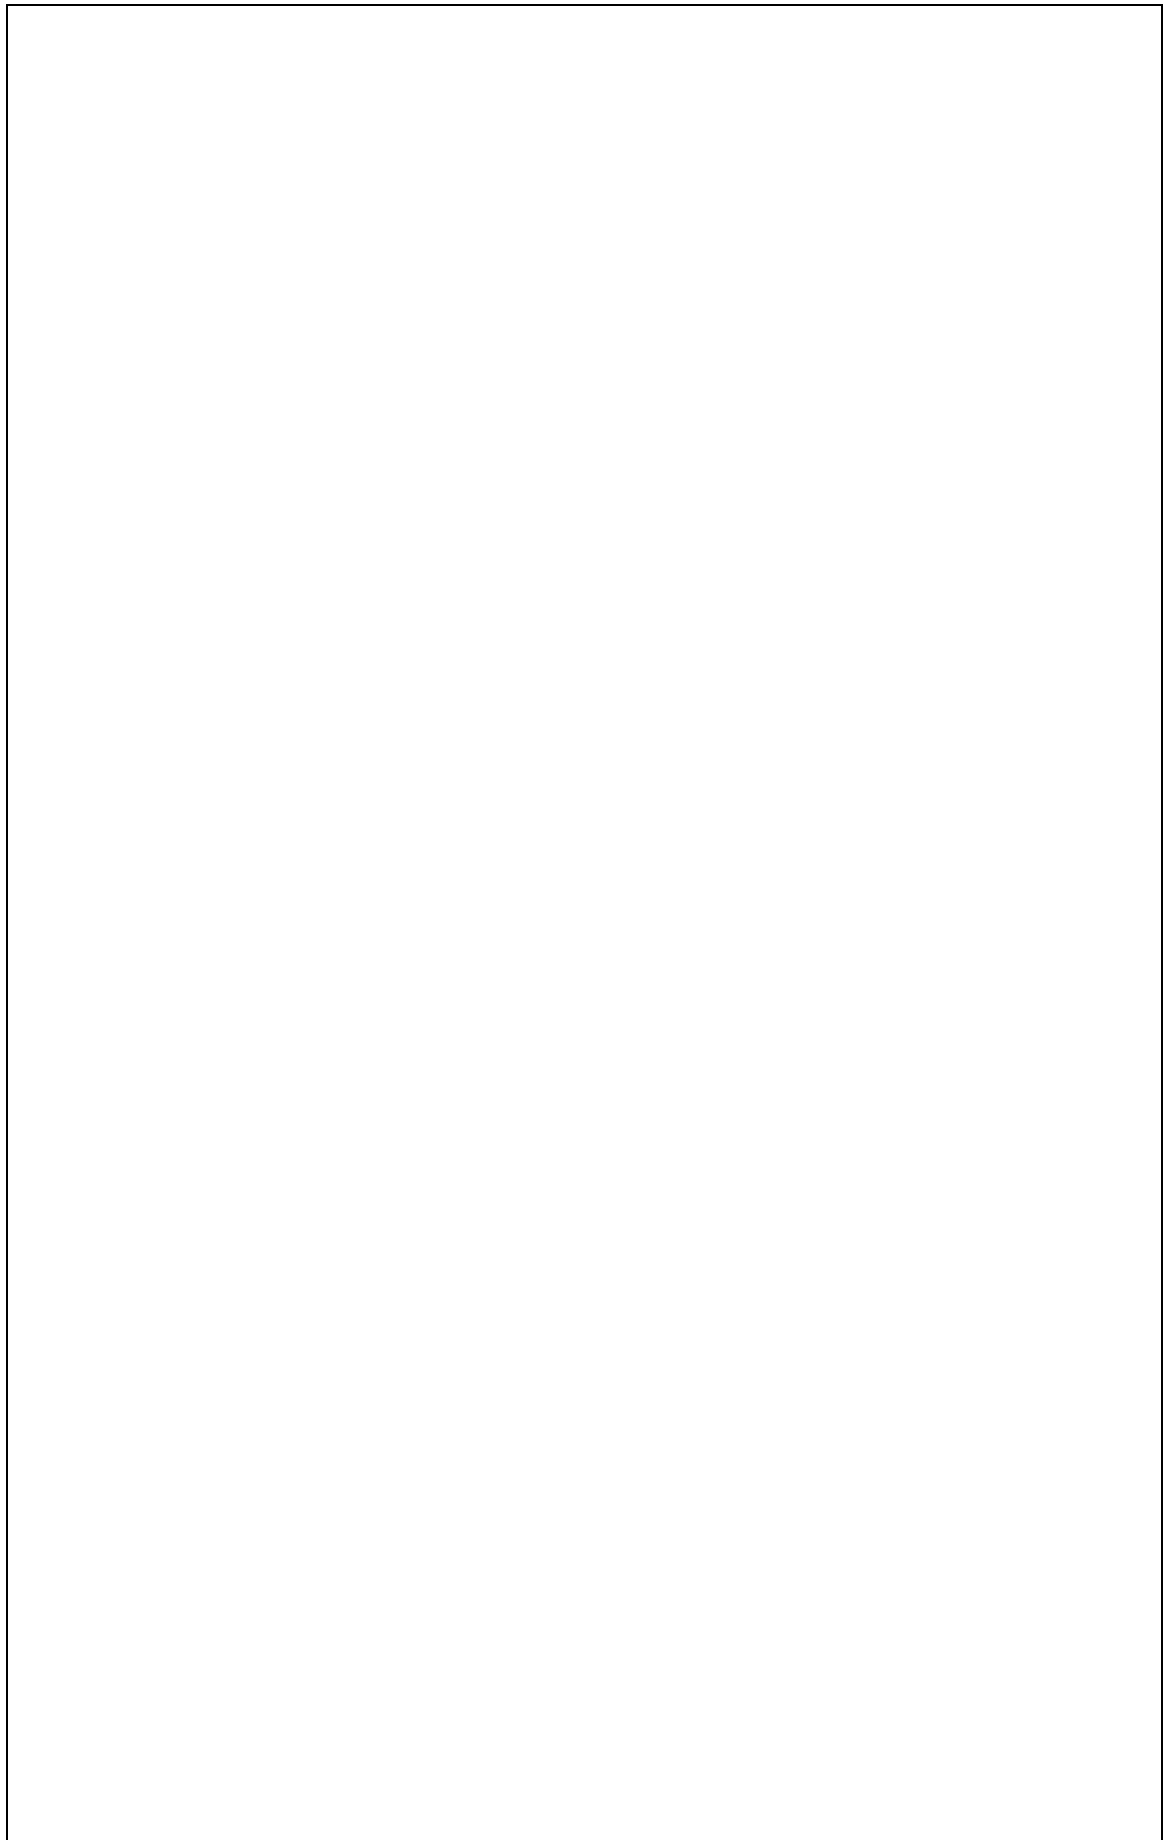

Website:

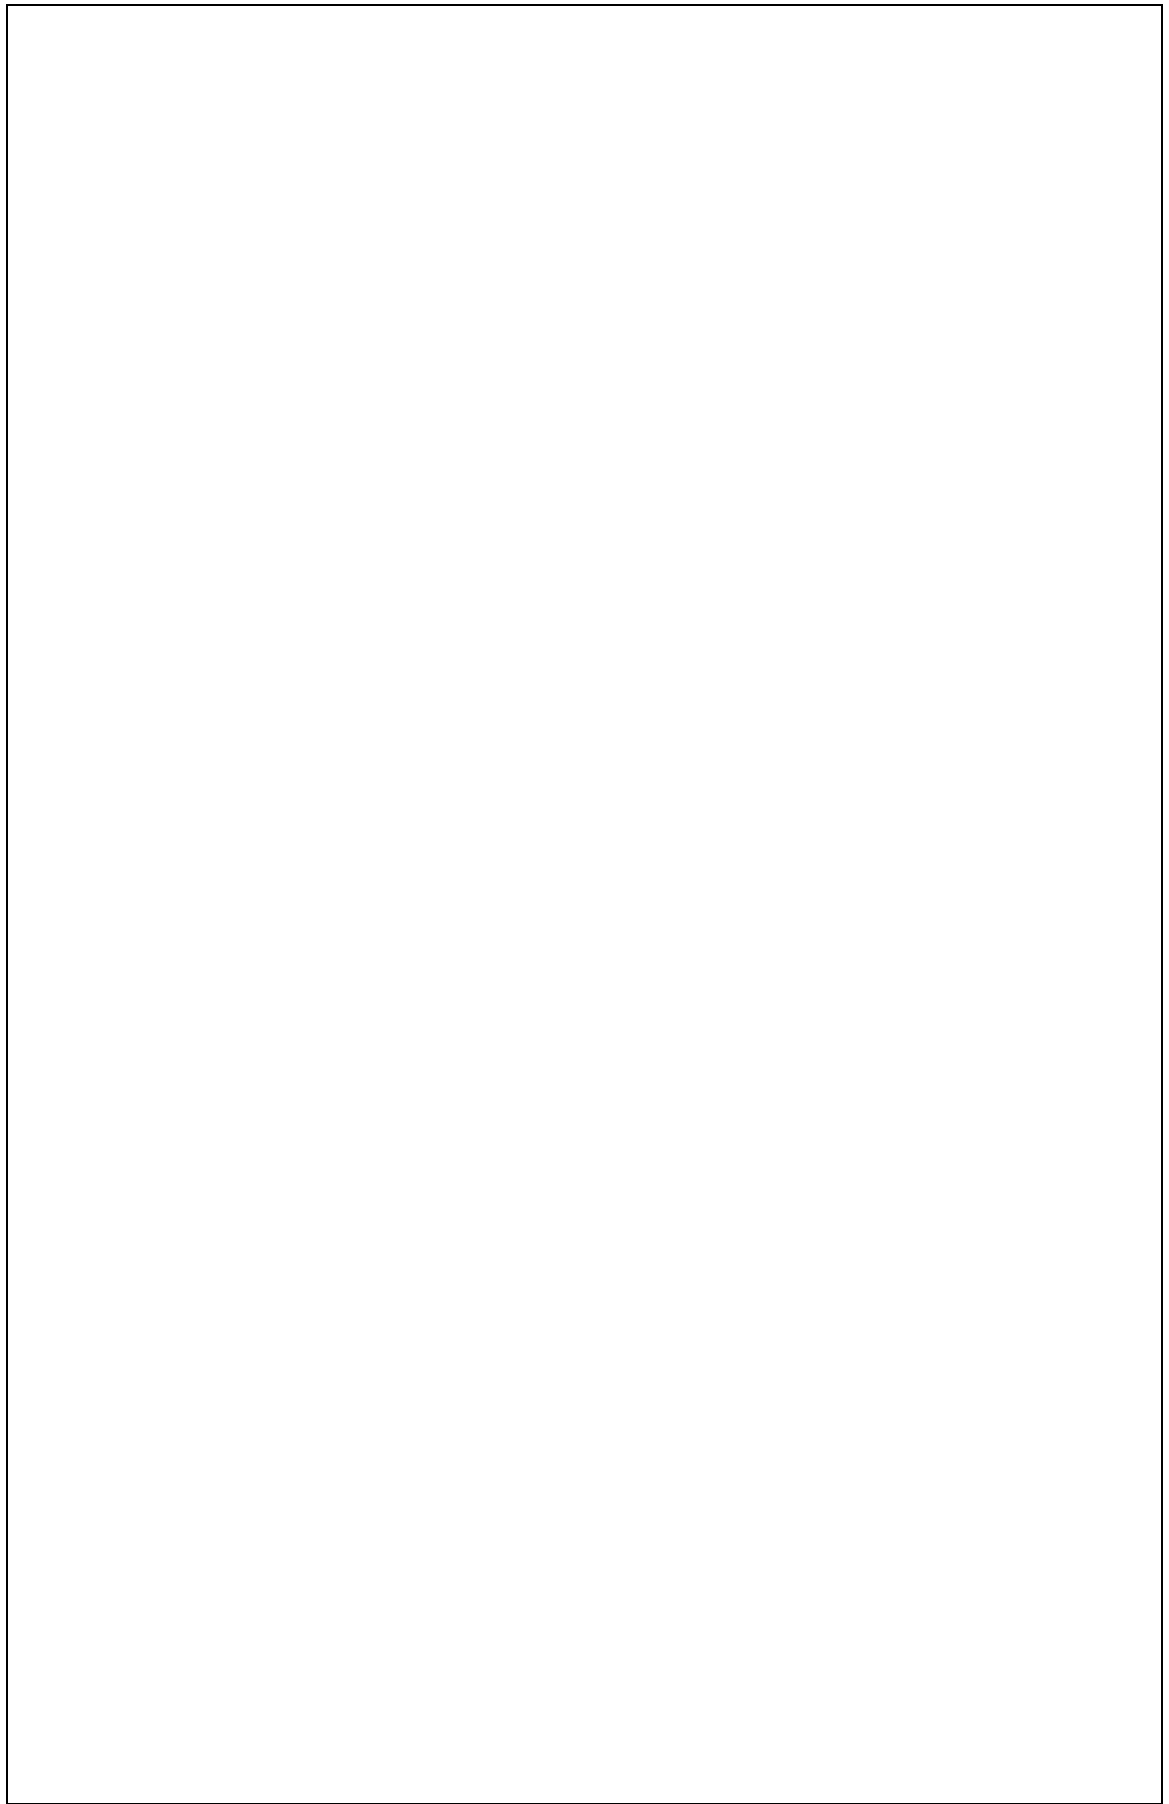

Email:

Tel:

4. Please 1. describe in up to 500 words how the nominee has achieved a notable accolade within the investigation sector.

Additional information (certificates / press reports / web features / testimonials etc can be appended).

5. Person making the nomination: Please provide your name, contact details and position within a professional association.

Name
Professional Association and position.
Address
Email
Tel Number
Relationship to nominee:

I submit this nomination in good faith. The information I have provided is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

.....
Signed

Dated