“Private investigation in the digital age: tools and techniques”

“P.I. International Summer School” has a long and beautiful tradition.

Under I.K.D.(Federation of Associations of Detectives) umbrella, along 18 editions, many private investigators from all over the world was together.

They shared professional experience, created memories and friendships.

It is important for us to be together, to get to know each other, to be in contact with new methods of investigation or with challenges of private investigation area.

Honorary Dean – the scientific coordinator of this edition
